Energy Saving Technologies Corporate Information

December 24th, 2019 - Energy Saving Fluid Analysis and Efficiency Improvement for Pumps By using a fluid analysis we optimize the shape of impeller while watching the pressure and velocity distribution carefully Moreover we are realizing the coexistence of higher velocity and efficiency by making the impeller match the pump casing'

'To arrest climate change investments in the distribution

December 23rd, 2019 - Prices of solar and other renewables are decreasing Consumer popularity is proportionately high The benefits of Oxygen House's investments with Low Carbon and other players in the renewable energy market are already being felt in lower energy bills greater energy security and fewer stranded in fuel poverty Low Carbon's newest multi'

'3 Innovative Energy Saving Methods for Electrical Distribution

August 24th, 2017 - Electrical distribution involves transporting high voltages over long distances with conventional AC current which brings about more high losses These losses can be eliminated by some innovative energy saving methods Renewable energy sources should be used wherever they are available in abundance'

'The energy saving effect and prediction method under

November 23rd, 2019 - Therefore this study examined the differences of energy saving effects under various illuminance distribution types and clarified the quantitative relations of factors such as uniformity ratio of illuminance with energy saving effect Furthermore it proposed a simple prediction formula for reference of energy saving methods 2 Methodology'

'Low voltage power distribution in the digital age Energy

December 26th, 2019 - The 7KN powercenter3000 IoT data platform transmits energy data to local energy management systems or to open cloud based IoT solutions Depending on the application it pays off to integrate the data already in the low voltage main distribution via SIMARIS control or in industrial automation via SIMATIC S7 through the engineering in the TIA portal'

'Energy Saving Transformer at Best Price in India

December 20th, 2019 - Energy Saving Transformer offered come designed and developed using latest technology support and provides for consistent working performance as demanded by the customers Further these transformers are designed to provide for high energy savings as well as can be made available in different configuration choices to pick from' 'Work Distribution Uttar Pradesh New and Renewable Energy
